

2012 Ciudad Construction Team

When? February 4 thru 11, 2012 (come for a few days or for the entire week).

What? A mission trip to do construction work at the orphanage. In addition, enjoy Christian fellowship with brethren from other congregations from the USA. Projects typically require a variety of construction skills.

A unique mission experience!

Let us rise up and build! Nehemiah 2:18

Where? Orphanage in Cozumel, Mexico.

Extras? You will enjoy the children, staff, members of the local church, and see the community.

Who? Persons with basic construction skills and a willingness to serve in hard, physical labor, joined by other Christians from congregations who wish to serve.

Travel Cost? The total expense of the trip is projected to be between $1,000 and $1,500 for a full week (airfare included).

Transportation? Direct flights are available to Cozumel from many USA cities. Ground transportation will be provided once you arrive, but anticipate a good bit of walking.

Accommodations? You will share space in a comfortable, secure, modern house with good amenities.

Men only? NO! There are projects at the orphanage for men and women. In addition, the workers will need cooks and other support persons.
